Michael
Jackson

Need to dance... on the floor... in the round? Rather than doing that with Billie Jean or dirty Dianas, you can do that with Michael Jackson. With fly dance moves and a voice of gold, how can you not melt like hard candy. When he's not lounging with baby tigers, you will find him preparing you for future unexpected celebrity deaths. When it comes to MJ you can't help, even if you wanted to.

When they say why? Tell them that Michael says it human nature. And then just do it that way

Etiam at risus et justo dignissim congue. Donec congue laciniat duis, a portitor lectus ad id condimentum. Nunc eu ullamcorper orci in nulla.

Low on your daily royal pop intake? Just take two doses of Michael and a cup of water

When something evil is lurking in the dark and you try to scream and freeze from the sight of horror, I heard that michael is your only salvation. Don't close your eyes, because this aint imagination.
